PUBLIC

May Aid Considerably in the Building of Good Roads—Advice of Uncle Rubie.

There is a constant clamor from the public for good roads, and every where we hear of "good roads" conventions and at most public gatherings, some one is down for a speech on "good roads." I wonder how many folks who travel the splendid roads we have now realize just how they are made.

The county judge can tell you how much money was appropriated, your magistrate can tell you where the work is being done, but only the contractor and roller man knows just what it means to make a good road. Of course, the workmen employed know, to a certain extent, but when the work is done and they receive their pay they are done, while the contractor and roller man are responsible for the finished work, so that when the inspector comes he may pronounce the work O. K.

We certainly have a wise and good judge. He has a staff of magistrates equal to the best, and the contractors all know their business perfectly, but those who are always crying for good roads are the very ones who make the trouble. The road bed is graded, the coarse rock is put on, then finer rocks, or screenings, and then the trouble begins. It is positively necessary after these screenings are put on, and sprinkled and rolled, to not have any driving over them until they get dry and hard. But no one seems to realize this. They (the public) seem to think some one is trying to make them do something and they will not be made.

I am told they have more trouble with automobiles than anything else. I guess the driver thinks because the tires are soft it won't hurt the road, but it does, and then the poor roller man has all his work to do over. I don't believe the people would make this trouble if they realized what they were doing, and so this little article is just to put a bug in the ear of the public. If you want good roads help to make them by driving on one side while they are being made and I am sure there will be no one more grateful than the contractor and roller man.

UNCLE RUBIE.

Attack Lice Tiggers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tiggers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

THE Eleventh Annual Fair of the Jefferson County Fair Company opened yesterday with a successful exhibition than ever known in the history of the company. The first day of the fair was taken up in making entries and in getting everything in readiness for the big day opening on the second day. The admission fee is 35c for adults and 10c for children.

At an early hour this morning people from Louisville and all over Jefferson and adjoining counties began to arrive in large numbers. The fair company in its announcement promised the best fair ever given, and from all indications at this time it appears that the people will not be disappointed. There is plenty of good water to drink, plenty of shade, and everything to make you have a good time. There is nothing that will bring the citizens of the county closer together than a county fair, where the people may gather from far and near, eat and drink together, "swap yarns," witness fast races, examine fine stock, etc., and become better acquainted. All hatred of one community against another disappears at the Jefferson County Fair, and the people go home with a renewed determination to unite upon all questions for the good of the whole county.

Thursday, Aug. 17.

On this day there will be over $100 in premiums awarded in the stock show rings. The features are a prize of $17 for the best mare or gelding under four years old—best rider or driver—of which $10 goes to the first 85 second, and $2 third; same for best mare or gelding over four years old; fastest trot, best 2 to 3, three times around, $15 to the first; $7 second, and $3 third; best girl rider under sixteen special by James Greene—$30 lady's desk to first and $10 book case to second; best gentleman rider, $5 to first and $2 and $1 to second and third respectively. A male race will also take place on this day, and it goes without saying that this will attract wide attention. Jos. Sellman, of Louisville, will give $250 for the best pony and rider. This will also be very interesting. There are a number of other rings on this day. Entries must be made by 12 o'clock in order to compete. Bryan Williams is the superintendent, and J. H. Alderson, E. A. Low and Lon Jones, committee on judges. Mote Williams is ring master.

J. H. ALDERSON, Vice-President.

Friday, Aug. 18.

This is Louisville Day and the city is expected to turn out in large numbers. The good people of our fair metropolis never fail to appreciate this compliment to them, and you may look for all your "city cousins" at the fair grounds on this day.

About $150 in premiums are offered for the best sucking mules, best saddle and harness horses, best saddles, fastest pacers, mules, etc. The pacer race will probably attract the greatest attention, as $20 is offered to the first, $10 to the second, and $5 to the third horse. The race is to be run three times around the track and is for the best 2 and 3 heats. A race of mares and geldings, any age, trot or pace, is a specialty by W. E. Meyers & Co., real estate dealers, and also promises an exciting time. First and second premiums are $15 and $10.

Saturday, Aug. 19.

This is called Bardston Road Day. It might have been better if the Company had changed this to "Central Lincoln Road" Day, but since it did not, we have to take it as it is. It is the last day of the fair and will be the best of all. The past exhibitions of the fair have demonstrated the fact that the people who attended this fair on the first three days just can't stay away on the "last day" and it is always a success.

A feature on this day is the "Gentleman Jockey" race, which always furnishes great pleasure to the crowd. It is charged by some that Charlie Scaggs and Lon Jones are professionalists by this time, they have ridden so often, and will be barred, but we shall have to wait and see. There are three premiums—$5, $3 and $1. The premiums for best saddle and harness stallion in service are $10, $5, and $2; the same for finest and best mare or gelding, except that $3 instead of $2 goes to the third. These rings will also be interesting, as some of the finest horses in the state are expected to show. Another male race will take place on this day—$10 to first; $5 to second, and $2 to third. The last and best race is a free trot or pace, two times around, for which $20 will be given to the first, $10 second and $5 third.

Hogs.

Willis McDaniel will be superintendent for these rings; J. Greenberg and J. L. Simcoe, committee on judges. There are liberal premiums offered for best Berkshires, Duroc Jerseys, and for best boar or sow, any age and any breed. Pedigrees must be shown to obtain entrance.

Poultry.

A. A. Koehler, superintendent; J. L. Simcoe and J. Greenberg, committee on judges. Sixteen dollars are offered in the poultry exhibits and owners are requested to coop birds so as not to cram them in the coops, but in full view of the public. They must be shown in pairs.

Farm Products.

Fayette Risinger, superintendent, and Chas. Hunsinger and Frank Williams, committee on judges. Nearly $100 is to be given in this line to Jefferson county growers only. For best display of farm products the premiums are $25 first $10 second and $5 third; best display field corn, $10 first and $5 second.

Garden Products.

About $100 in premiums are to be given for best garden products in Jefferson county only. John Hartman, Carl Farmer and Jesse Brown are superintendents and A. V. Thomson and Henry Deibel, committee on judges. For best general collection of vegetables the premiums are $20 to first and $10 to second, to be given by the exhibitor. Best general collection owned and collected by one exhibitor, sweepstakes, $20 to first and $10 to second.

MELONS, PLUMS, ETC.—Harvey Bates, superintendent; Henry Deibel and A. V. Thomson, committee on judges. Over $50 is to be distributed among Jefferson county growers. A $15 first premium is to go for the best collection of ten varieties of watermelons; $7.50 to second. APPLIES—Edward Wikstier and Orville Stivers, superintendents; Dr. Wm. Farmer and David Kyser, committee on judges. About $50 is to be given to Jefferson county growers. For best 20 varieties $10 first; $5 second.

J. B. Berry is superintendent for the peach exhibit; Ben Williams, for peaches, and Misses Margaret Williams and Nell Singleton for grapes. Liberal premiums are offered for county exhibits.

Household Products.

Misses Lizzie Haves and Flora Miller superintendents; F. M. Williams and Dr. H. P. Stivers, committee on judges. Nearly $100 is to be given in premiums on all kinds of canned fruits, cakes, pies, pickles, etc. Louisville Dairy Supply Co., Louisville, offers a special premium of $8 for best 20 pounds of butter.

Necktie exhibit, A. will be superintended by Misses Florence Pierson and Lizzie Guiley, and Exhibit B, by Misses Abbie Risinger and Isabella Maple. Over fifty dollars in premiums are offered. Special Art Department will be presided over by Miss Stella McKaig, assisted by Hugh Summers. Flowers by Miss Georgia Bush, assisted by H. A. Brown.

Special Premiums by Seedmen.

Southern Seed Company offers $25 for best display of farm and garden products grown from their seeds. The Jefferson County Produce Exchange offers $50 in premiums for products grown from seeds from any seed house in the United States, as follows: Best display vegetables, $25; best display farm products, $25.

Wood & Stubbs Co. offers a $20 premium for best display of products grown from their seeds.

History of the Fair Company.

The Jefferson County Fair Company was organized and incorporated in 1909. The incorporators were W. P. Hays, Dr. H. P. Stivers, Frank M. Williams and E. B. Berry. F. M. Williams was elected President; W. P. Hays, V. Pres.; Dr. Stivers, Sec.; E. B. Berry, Treasurer. The incorporators called a meeting and six more men were taken into the company and the stock book closed. An election was again held and Bryan Williams was elected president, and has been re-elected every year since; J. D. Taggart, V. Pres.; Dr. H. P. Stivers, Sec.; E. B. Berry, Treas. Directors: John Williams, W. P. Hays, Frank Williams, David Kyser, Ben J. Williams and Dr. Wm. Farmer. After five years the company was increased to twenty stockholders. Death entered the company and claimed four of the members. The company is now composed of the following: Bryan Williams, Pres.; J. H. Alderson, V. Pres.; E. B. Berry, Sec.; Louis Diemer, Treas. Directors: Ben J. Williams, Henry Deibel, E. A. Low, A. V. Thomson, George Schuster, Jake Greenberg, Lon Jones, J. L. Simcoe, Chas. Hunsinger, S. Edw. Vogt, Dr. H. P. Stivers, Frank M. Williams and C. W. Scott.

The fair grounds of the company are situated 5 miles from Louisville, Ky., and 1 mile from the Central Lincoln Road and equal distance from the electric line. Bardston Road, one of the best pikes (built by Hoke Co.) leads to the gates. It is the prettiest, coolest and shaded fair grounds in the State. Three fine wells furnish all water needed. There is a large grandstand from which to view the stock and the races; a commodious shed, screened in, where displays of farm, garden, fruit and flowers are exhibited, and a ladies' pavilion for needle work, household art; stables for stock; dining hall, and closed booths for refreshments. The Company has as

CREAMERY

Now in Good Hands and Success is Assured—Chas. D. Tyler Proprietor.

The Jeffersonton Creamery has recently changed hands, going into the possession of Chas. D. Tyler, of Jeffersonton. Larry Tyler, son of Chas. D. Tyler, will have charge of the butter making, and with his experience in this line you may expect the best results.

The Messrs. Tyler have asked The Jeffersonian to announce that they will give correct weight, an honest test, and that all bills will be paid promptly. Prices on butter fat will be made on the first of each month for the month, that customers may know just how much they will receive. The new company is now receiving milk daily and the creamery is running in full blast, with great prospects of success.

There is nothing that is needed more in this part of Jefferson county than a first-class creamery, and it is hoped that farmers from all over this section will patronize the Jeffersonton Creamery. This creamery has made a success in the past and there is no reason why, under the management of the Messrs. Tyler, that it should not continue to do so. This part of Jefferson is as prosperous as any other section of the county, and if every citizen here gives his or her patronage to all our home institutions you will see wonderful results and all will benefit thereby.

IMPROVEMENT

In Great Along Central Lincoln Road—More Work is Being Done.

Dirt will continue to fly on the Central Lincoln Way. Engineer S. F. Creel has charge of the work between Louisville and Buffalo. Speaking for his stretch of road the engineer says that the work already done has improved the highway 100 per cent. In Jefferson county the road has been ditched and much of the hardest labor has been completed. There will be a little more grading and some culverts to build. Louisville is sending culvert pipe all along the line to Buffalo. Mr. Creel has expressed the opinion that it will be two weeks before the work is completed in all of the counties. Nelson county, it seems, has more money to spend than the other counties, and an unusually elaborate job is being done.

In that county the work is being done by contract. This week a concrete bridge will be constructed over Landing Run in Nelson county, and one will be built in Larue county.

displays of fruit, farm and garden products as can be seen anywhere in the State. The exhibits at the fair of Jefferson county only, the premium at the State Fair last year. Through the generosity of the Fiscal Court the Fair Company is enabled to offer premiums on farm, fruit and garden, to be contended for by the people of Jefferson county only. This fair has been the cause of the advance of land in this vicinity, and is the means of encouraging people to grow better crops and should be patronized by all well-thinking and patriotic citizens. It is run for the public good and is liberally patronized by our best citizens who appreciate good things, and therefore the fair company has been successful and has proven that a good fair is a benefit to the surrounding country.

BUTTER AWARDS WILL TEMPT THE FARMERS

NEW DEPARTMENT PROVIDED, AT SUGGESTION OF EXPERIMENT STATION.

Special attention will be given this year in connection with the Kentucky State Fair to creamery butter. The management desires to encourage this industry in Kentucky and it has been decided that creamery butter, notes and sorghum molasses will be placed in the horticultural department. Here, therefore it has been a part of the field, seed and grain department. The horticultural department always is one of the most interesting at the big fair, and not alone to the residents of the rural sections, and the addition of these displays will increase the interest materially.

Members of the state fair board express the opinion that a more important feature than that of creamery butter will be hard to find and the display is expected to be such as to evidence the lead which Kentucky has taken in this phase of agricultural endeavor.

The experiment station of Kentucky State university recommends the creamery butter display.

FREE ADMISSION NIGHT HORSE SHOW

POPULAR INNOVATION FOR NINTH ANNUAL STATE FAIR.

"I'LL BE THERE; WILL YOU?"

Slogan For All Kentuckians Is Adopted By Management—Perry's Victory on Lake Erie.

Dozens of new departments and attractions which have been created by the state fair board for the coming 9th annual state fair do not by any means constitute all of the inducements to the public to attend, as a proposition which caps the climax for generosity has been finally decided upon. That is to admit the public to the big horse show at night in the pavilion free of charge. To be exact, the only requisite for admission to this show, one which will include dozens of horses which have carried off premiums in the most exclusive shows in the country, will be to buy a ticket for admission at the gate. In the past an extra admission fee of 25 cents has been charged for the privilege of the horse show held each night.

The only exception to this rule will be that a few seats will be roped off and tickets for these will be sold. But those not wishing to pay an extra quarter, even though the horse show will be worth double that sum, may see it in perfect comfort by occupying free of charge any of the seats not reserved to be sold.

For Kentucky's Benefit.

As a result of this and other inducements, the greeting, "I'll be there; will you?" is expected to be heard on all hands prior to and during fair week. By the way, there is a good deal of real patriotism embodied in this expression, "I'll be there; will you?" when it is heard in connection with the big show which is being prepared for the people of Kentucky. This will not be a fair for the material benefit of one man or set of men. Many business men are giving up their time, and going to much trouble, without recompense of any character, in order to make the fair a success.

Tens of thousands of dollars will be paid out to Kentuckians in premiums, the industries and resources of the state will be helped and the citizens given an opportunity to see and learn, at a cost of fifty cents each, more than could be seen or learned under such circumstances anywhere else in the country except at a similar institution. Therefore, when a Kentuckian along about the time state fair week approaches is heard giving his neighbor this greeting, he is interested in encouraging the exhibition of the products of his home state and he is entitled to all credit.

The Kentucky State Fair is developing each year more and more into a place where friendships are renewed, relatives are met, voters are corralled and conventions of all characters held. In the past the convention tent has been located at an out-of-the-way place hard to find and poorly located. Secretary P. M. Sly has decided this year to locate it to the left of the visitor to the ground enters, directly opposite the Model School building. A commodious tent will be provided and all arrangements necessary to the holding of the different gatherings made.

Bureau of Information.

Still another innovation, and one which most probably will appeal to the public forcibly, will be a Bureau of Information located just at the point where the main road for pedestrians branches off around the semi-circular piece of lawn used as a resting place. Secretary Sly says that in this Bureau of Information he will have established a man who knows his business and who will freely give any information as to points around the fair grounds.

Perry's famous victory on Lake Erie, which soon is to be celebrated in an imposing manner by representatives of several states, together with the national government, will be among the fire works features. This is a feature not only approved but wanted, which promises to be of thrilling interest.

HAVE NOT ENOUGH TO DO

People Like the Inhabitants of Pitcairn Island Really Deserve the Sympathy of Others.

While most people are sorry for those who have too much to do, for my part I reserve my sympathy for those who have too little to do. They seem to me to have scarcely a fair chance in the world. Their natures are not properly taxed and tested, trained and developed. They are sure not to grow up to be among those who are great, wise, good and famous in the world. Now they are glad that they are free from the ordinary cares and activities of life. In the future they will be sorry. Indeed, it may help to kill them.

A traveler, who visited the Pitcairn Islanders in their lonely Pacific home, where they led a life "absolute idleness, found some of them dying of old age when only 50 or 60 years of age—a time of life when those who lead a busy existence are in their prime. They had too little to do. The rough hub of life, for its due adjustment, needs a certain amount of work and worry.

Two strangers met one day at a country village, where both had come in search of rest. One was a newspaper man, the other a physician. In the morning, the newspaper man lay lazily on the grass, picking buttercups and daisies and looking at the blue sky. This he did for an hour, while the physician watched him. Medical men have a trick of watching their fellow creatures. We are open books for them to read.

"You seem, sir," said the physician, "to be rather fond of lying on the grass and picking daisies."

"I have a passion for it," was the answer. "I should like to spend my life lying here, picking daisies."

"And yet," was the rejoinder, "I have an idea that you are a man who leads a pretty active life—that you take a good deal of interest in other matters besides the picking of daisies."

"Yes, I work a great deal more than I like, and I should be glad to quit and would choose to rest here on my back forever, with nothing in the world to do."

"Do you know, sir, what would be the result of that?"

"Well, what would it be?"

"It would probably be an attack of paralysis. To stop work would probably end your existence."

Often people have too little to do in early life. They have seasons of merriment and glorious leisure. Then comes the long stretch of life, with hard work; and they too late regret, now when they have too much to do, that they did not take advantage of the time when they had too little to do.

Decline of the Boatwain.

The rumored disestablishment of boatwains, as an amachronism dating from the days of sail, is no more likely to come to pass than the extermination of the pepper as a survival of the wooden age. But the former class have little enough share in the general improvement of service conditions. What was said in Truth the other day as to the gunners getting all the plums out of the pudding is particularly borne out by one glance under which the boatwain labor. In 1901 there were nearly 400 boatwains and a like number of gunners. The respective proportion of chiefs and warrant officers was about equal. Today there are 262, including 12 lieutenants and 27 warrants; while there are 830 gunners, including 26 lieutenants and 78 warrants. The expansion of the latter branch is a natural and necessary corollary of the growth of the fleet, but it is equally true that the shrinkage of the former class is unnatural and unnecessary—London Truth.

Botanists in Alarm.

No little alarm is being felt among botanists at present at the rapid disappearance of the wild flowers of the Hawaiian Islands. The flowers are beautiful beyond description, but many of them have become extinct already. Some of them have very strange properties or habits. For instance, the flower of the Hau tree lasts but a single day, opening at sunrise and closing at sunset. The Koali-Awahu is another beautiful flower and it changes from purple to pink during the day. Some of these flowers, such as the Poalanee, bloom only in April and May, but the greater number seem to bloom nearly the entire year. Some of the vines are very prolific, one of them spreads over an entire acre of ground. One curious plant is a fly catcher; and still another lures unsuspecting insects to destruction by a peculiar odor and light.

No Fear.

Robert W. Chambers has, as a novel idea, a fertility that is only exceeded by his brilliance.

At the Century club, in New York the other day one of those elderly brawlers who are the bane of all clubs drew his chair up to Mr. Chambers' and said gently:

"Chambers, you are writing at the rate of two and sometimes three novels every year, to say nothing of your annual sheaf of short stories. Aren't you afraid that the time will come when you will have written yourself out?"

"My dear sir," Mr. Chambers replied, "I have no such fear. Just look at your own case. You have been talking for more than sixty years, and yet you haven't talked yourself out, have you?"

BIBLE LECTURE

At Bruce's Hall Next Monday Night, August 21, By Rev. F. A. Hall—Free To Everybody.

Rev. F. A. Hall, of the International Bible Students Association, a noted Bible exegete and lecturer, will speak in Bruce's Hall, Jefferson.

town, Monday evening, August 21st, at 7:45 o'clock. Dr. Hall is a fluent and forceful speaker, who proves every assertion by a "Thus Saith the Lord." Thousands of Christians are waking up to what business men of the world have seen long ago, i. e. The criminal waste of time, money and effort in the religious world by the continued use of the method of the Dark Ages; and they recognize that it is high time for God's people, with the electric arc light opportunities of the present, to discard the tallow dip and get busy.

The spontaneous heart-quickening of Christians of all denominations, the world over, has brought into existence the association, truly international in its scope and made up of Bible students in theory, as well as in fact, many of whom claim the movement is quickly and surely fulfilling that wonderfully pathetic appeal of the Master: "That they may be one."

These Bible study meetings are for the promotion of Christian knowledge and individual Bible study, and not to build up another sect, of which, as all agree, there are already too many. No collections are taken, neither are subscriptions solicited at any of the meetings. The association holds that "The Truth" is self-supporting. All are cordially invited to hear Dr. Hall. His topic will be "What is the mystery of God?"

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1911.

The Democrats of Kentucky Tuesday night adopted a platform on which their candidates previously named in a primary, will go before the people of the State and ask for their suffrages. The fight on the county unit plank, as was forecast, took place and one was inserted declaring that "temperance should not be made a partisan issue between political parties, but calling for an extension of the present local option law as applied to the sale of liquor so that the citizens of each county may determine whether liquors shall be sold therein." Warm discussions took place and it was one of the most exciting conventions ever held. The platform adopted is approved by Senator McCreary, nominee for Governor, and ex-Governor Beckham, who made a strong fight against Hon. Henry Watterson, representing the opposing side. The platform is a good one, with the exception, possibly, of the county unit extension plank, and the Democrats will put up a strong race.

In response to a request signed by 150 members of the Louisville bar last January Hon. James Quarles announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Judge of the First Division of Chancery branch of the Jefferson Circuit Court. Gov. Willson having appointed Robt. W. Bingham on account of the resignation of Judge Shakerford Miller, who was elected to the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals. An election to fill the vacancy will be held in November, 1911.

James Quarles is the grandson of William H. Field, who was a distinguished lawyer in Louisville before the civil war. He is a nephew of the late Judge Emmet Field whose high character and splendid service on the bench of the Jefferson Circuit Court make his memory honored by all. Mr. Quarles was graduated in 1880 from the law school of Washington and Lee University, at Lexington, Virginia, in which institution his father occupied the chair of Philosophy for twenty-one years, and until his death. In the year of his graduation he came to Louisville, the birthplace of his mother and former home of other of his antecedents, and became associated first with Judge John Roberts, and afterwards with the late Colonel Thomas W. Ballitt. However, the past eighteen years he has been practicing law alone. If he is elected in November he will make a splendid official.

NEWS

From Seatonville Neighborhood Of Past Week Dampen Dry Ridge Told In Brief.

New School House Going Up—Mr. Taylor Found and Miss Walda Knauer Wed.—Reunion of Seaton Family.

Seatonville, Aug. 15.—This and joining neighborhood were visited by a heavy rain and some wind last Saturday afternoon. It washed the ground and blew corn up by the roots and broke stalks off, but the rain was so badly needed that we feel that it was a great benefit, if it did a little damage to crops.

New School Building.
Work has begun on the new school house in this vicinity, which is certainly needed. Every one is willing to contribute and gratify our worthy trustee, Mr. Jim Tinnell, for being instrumental in selecting the ground, and getting this building on the way and with the energetic, and pushing men, Mr. Len McMahon and Mr. McMahon, to do the work, we hope to soon have a neat, comfortable building for the children of this neighborhood as in other neighborhoods.

Found—Knauer.
Mr. Taylor Pound, only son of Dr. T. P. D. Pound, and Miss Walda Knauer, of Jefferson, were very quickly married last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed. Bates, in Louisville. They were entertained Sunday by Dr. Pound and wife at their beautiful home near here. Those who enjoyed the day with the newly wedded couple were Dr. Taylor and wife, Mrs. Claude Bingham and the sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bates, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. Arch Tinnell and Mr. Chester Tyler and sister. We wish to extend our congratulations to them by wishing them a long, useful and happy married life.

First Visit in 38 Years.
Mrs. Mollie Jean Sparks, of Pimlico, Md., is visiting relatives in this county, this being the first visit she's made here for thirty-eight years. Her mother was the daughter of Mr. Wm. Miller and lived in and around Jeffersontown for years. The changes that have been made make her feel and remark that nothing looked natural.

Reunion of Seaton Family.
Mr. Frank Jean, wife and little daughter, Emma, and Miss Ethel Mills paid a short visit to relatives in Indianapolis last week and returned the reunion of the Seaton family. They met on a fact thirty miles from Indianapolis where Mr. Allen Seaton and wife who was a Miss Seaton had spent some happy days together, having lived together over fifty years. They began by celebrating their fiftyth anniversary, and now that the dear old father, mother and all their own children save one have gone to their reward, the sons, and daughters-in-law, the grand, and great-grand children continue to meet together that day, Aug. 11, in memory of their loved ones, this one being the eightieth anniversary. Mrs. Seaton, the only child remaining of this happy union, has been an invalid for seven years, having typhoid fever which settled in his limbs, and has not walked in seven years. He has a host of relatives in this county that he would enjoy seeing once more. Those who attended their reunion enjoyed it immensely and hope to go again.

Protracted Meetings.
Mr. E. L. Jorgenson delivered a sabbath talk Sunday at Cedar Springs to attentive audience. We all were glad to have him back. He with Mr. Bert of the Portland church, have just returned from a successful meeting in Maine. He expects to begin a series of meetings at Cedar Springs the fourth Lord's day in this month. We are sorry that they cannot meet on that day, but to begin and extend an invitation to all.

Mr. Rose Boston, wife and daughter, Katie Leach, paid some social calls in this neighborhood Sunday that was enjoyed by all.
We want to extend sympathy to the Stout family in the loss of another loved one.
Miss Maude Miller entertained a few of her friends last Saturday at dinner. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were Misses Mollie Belle, Blanch and Annie Funk, Mayne Bridwell and Stella Carithers. Mr. Roy Farmer and wife, of Jeffersontown, Mr. Dave Wigginton and family, Mr. Roy Reid and wife, Messrs. Irvin Swan, Ernest Tyler and Wigginton Shake.
Mr. Frank King and family had as their guests Sunday, Mr. Elmer Wheeler and wife, of Louisville, Lake Wheeler and family, Mr. Clarence Omer and wife, Mr. Bayley Jones and wife and Mr. Joe Wheeler and family.

Mr. Bayley Jones and wife, of Smyrna, and Mr. Harvey Stout spent last Friday with Mr. Force Jean and wife. Mr. Stout said they had not had a good rainy day since first of May but we hope they have received that blessing.

Mr. Willie King has her two sisters, Miss Carrie Jones and Mrs. Brum and little daughter visiting her from Shelbyville.
We are glad to have Miss Ida Jones at home for a few days.

RAINS

From Seatonville Neighborhood Of Past Week Dampen Dry Ridge Told In Brief.

New School House Going Up—Mr. Taylor Found and Miss Walda Knauer Wed.—Reunion of Seaton Family.

Dry Ridge, August 15.—Some one has said that every cloud has a silver lining. And so it seems, for the wind storm last Saturday afternoon, that blew down our fences and most of our corn, was accompanied by the best rain Dry Ridge has had for a long time, which revived our pastures, and replenished our stock-water, making every thing both of the vegetable and animal kingdom look and feel better.

See Many Things at Fair.
Lots of folks on our line attended the Taylorsville Fair last week, and they report a fair fall, a good time, big crowds, pretty girls, plenty to eat, scarcity of water, intense heat, clouds of dust, the explosion of an airship, and a murder. The last named is to be lamented whenever and wherever it occurs. And we are sorry that the fair was marred by such a tragedy. A Mr. Pugh was killed by a man by the name of Cottrill, who he had employed to ride his horses for him. The trouble arose over money, and it is said that Cottrill was under the influence of whisky. Mr. Pugh was a tenant of Mrs. Little Ferguson, and lived on her farm on Salt river, which is one of the finest in Spencer county.

Rain Rite Fiscal.
Our Farmer's Union picnic was not as successful as last year. The rain kept many at home who would like to have gone to have heard Mr. Barnett, the state organizer, who is a splendid speaker. We hope he will have big crowds to hear him at Fern Creek and Jeffersontown this week, and that he may arouse enthusiasm concerning farming and Farmer's Union, for just now most farmers are feeling mighty blue and "down in the mouth." Still, after all, there are lots of things worse than living on a farm, even if we do have bad crops now and then.

Win Premiums at Fair.
We were glad that Dennis Shale's cook took the premium at the Taylorsville Fair. Guy Boston was fortunate enough to get in a plate of peaches. The Misses Boston received a number of premiums on their needle work, as they always do when they exhibit it.

Our Fair a Good One.
My! Won't this be a busy week with Jefferson county women! Our fair will be here. First, we will bake cakes, fry chickens, and get ready. Then we will go feeling so proud and so interested in, every thing connected with what we're—and justly so—consider one of the best and the state. And when it's over we will have tired bodies and pleasant memories, and big laundry bills to show for it.

Bunch of Pretty Girls.
We happened to be out driving yesterday afternoon and stopped at Mrs. Edie Miller's farm a while. The porch running around her lovely home seemed literally covered with pretty girls—stylish young brides and married women; nice looking men, and three or four sweet little children. The whole scene in picture I won't soon forget, but I can't mention all their names—it would take up too much space. I'll just say that Dry Ridge, Mt. Washington, Jeffersontown, Whitfield, the state of Ohio, and several other places were well represented.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wigginton spent the day Friday with Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Boston.
John Carrington and wife spent Sunday with J. R. Carrithers and family.

Mr. Roy Reid and Miss Annie Reid entertained recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Casey. Those present were Mrs. Miller and son, Raymond, Mr. Alex. Miller and family, Mr. Burdine Bridwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Tennill and Mrs. M. G. Boston and children. Miss Mattie Reid paid a short and pleasant visit to her sisters here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Burdine Bridwell and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave McKinley Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Jim Tennill is having a room and front porch built to his home, that will add to its appearance greatly.
Mr. M. G. Boston and daughter made a short visit to Mr. K. S. Mills and family yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Jess Boston, of Cane Run, spent yesterday with his mother and her family.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald, who have the exchange that connects the line with Wigginton, left yesterday for a trip to Niagara Falls. We wish them a pleasant journey and safe return home.

Mr. Ernest Scobee, of Elk Creek, who has a number of relatives here, took his ten-year-old son, Harry, Sunday afternoon to be operated on for appendicitis.
Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Boston went to the city one day last week shopping, and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Cartwright.
Mrs. Morley entertained Mr. Ed. Casey and family and Mr. Casey Jack Pleck last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Mack, of Cane Run, entertained Mr. Beechy Knapp and wife and Mr. Walter Knapp and family Sunday.

Contest Closes September 18, 1911.

The Fifth Annual Popularity Contest of The Jeffersonian, which started a few weeks since, will close on Sunday, September 18, 1911, at 3 o'clock p. m. sharp. No votes shall be cast after that time unless otherwise officially notified.

On account of the State Fair we thought it best to run the contest until after its close, thus giving contestants an opportunity to work among their friends at the fair. The contest, therefore, will close within a little over a month, and it is time friends of the young ladies were going to work in earnest.

What Was Done The Past Week.

Miss Iva Johnson, daughter of Mr. N. B. Johnson, of Fern Creek, has taken the lead in the contest, after having started only three weeks ago. This is deserving of much credit, and demonstrates what can be done by a little persistent effort. Miss Minnie Hoke, of Jeffersonton, the popular exchange girl, is in second place this week, while little Miss Allie B. Meyer, of Buchel, who has made a fine race from the start, is in third position. Miss Katherine Marshall, who was leading last week, drops down to fourth position, but the knowing ones seem to think she is making a "waiting race" out of it.

Misses Hummel, Robbins, Dwinell, Moremen and Rothenberger are closely following the leaders, and any one of them could take the lead with only a few subscriptions. For instance, Mrs. Johnson, the leader, has 28,400 votes, and Miss Rothenberger, who is next to last in the contest, has 14,140, only 14,230 behind the leader; 15 subscriptions would give her 15,000 votes and place her in first position.

The Jeffersonian has never held a contest where the contestants were so close together, and we are gratified to know that the rivalry between the young ladies is friendly and that all are working for the interest of their home or county paper.

In order for votes to be counted for publication they must be in the office by 12 o'clock on Wednesday of each week.

DOING THINGS

At St. Matthews Writes A. B. C.—Improvement Club Wants L. & E. To Build Station.

St. Matthews, Aug. 14.—A new improvement club has been organized at St. Matthews for the betterment of the community at large, and beautifying of all avenues and vacant lots. There was a feeble effort along this line about a year ago, but owing to lack of enthusiasm, and several of the leaders moving away, it fell through. Now, some public spirited persons with great zeal for advancement, not afraid of hard work or spending money in a good cause, have formed a combination, which means success. Prominent, efficient men like Messrs. Dick, Hardin, Arterburn, R. Dorsey, Bauer and others, never fail in any undertaking. Among their efforts will be urging (in more ways than one) the L. & E. to build a station at St. Matthews worthy of the place. Instead of a shed too small for half dozen persons to stand on and a few ladies' hats, much less baggage. In this day of progress such neglect is shameful.

The Tie That Binds.

Another club has been formed at St. Matthews by the younger set for innocent pleasure and to get acquainted, which will also result in ties lasting a life time. Human nature repeats itself, although these young folks think no one ever felt as they do. What a blessing and positive proof that love comes from God because it never wears out or goes out of fashion and is the most powerful leverage in helping one solve the problem of life's difficulties.

Nineteen Additions to Church.

Protracted meeting at Worthington closed Friday night. There were nineteen additions and all were benefited by the logical, convincing sermons. As our regular preacher, who has preached here eight years, conducted the services, we felt it would not amount to much and several "knowing ones" predicted it would not amount to a "hill of beans." It's proving, by far, the best meeting in years, and convincing these parties they did not know everything, is a powerful work indeed.

We are so proud of our boys, Shelton and Covington Arterburn, in many ways, but especially the prizes and notoriety they have gained at tennis. They are now the state champions, having been awarded a beautiful silver loving cup.

Mrs. Wachendorf, of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles Neuner.

Miss Lyle Booker, of Shelbyville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Elter.

Mr. Robert and Henry Nantz entertained the younger set last week in a lovely manner. Refreshments were served and all had a good time. This week everybody is going to Fern Creek fair principally, because we shall meet each other there; secondly, to show what the drought has done for us and see what it has done for others; thirdly, thankful it is no worse. A. B. C.

ROUTT.

Hard Rain Here Highly Appreciated—Lightning Strikes Rick of Hay—Other News of Interest.

Aug. 14.—The hard rain Saturday afternoon was highly appreciated by one and all. Stock water had begun to get very low and several were driving twice a day to water their stock.

Arick of hay belonging to Mr. Van Finley on his farm near here was struck by lightning Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdine Bridwell and daughter visited relatives at Jeffersontown Sunday.

Mrs. Pete Carlin returned to Jeffersontown Thursday after spending several days with Mrs. Joe Knapp. Mrs. John Shake entertained Mrs. Joe Knapp and callers, Mrs. Pete Carlin, Mrs. Tom Boston and Mrs. Arthur Frier and others on last Tuesday.

Several from here attended the Farmers' Union picnic at the fair grounds, near Fern Creek, on Saturday. A fine time was reported by those who attended.

Misses Ethel and Margaret Reid spent Friday night with Miss Cora Davis, of near Fisherville, who also delightfully entertained Misses Neil Singleton and Margaret Williams, of Huchel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Veach, of Elk Creek, visited Mrs. Alma Paris and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hobbs and little daughter have returned to their home in Chicago, after an extended visit with friends and relatives.

We are proud to say that the Misses Boston, of this neighborhood, received several premiums on their beautiful needlework at the Spencer county fair this week. Quite a number from here attended this fair on Thursday and thought it a very good fair. The racing, side-shows, machinery and all things were very interesting and enjoyable and most every one was very eager to see the airship go up, but all were very disappointed when it was discovered that it wouldn't work.

Mrs. Charlie Davis and little daughter visited Mr. James Neel and family last week and attended the fair on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Finley and baby visited Mr. Asie Veach and family, near Elk Creek, Sunday.

Miss Mattie Reid visited relatives here the last of the week.

Mrs. Susie Bradbury entertained Misses Winnie Clark, Betty McMahon and Margaret Reid last Wednesday night, in honor of her niece, Miss Bessie Sheat, of Shelbyville.

Personal Notes.

Miss Edna Heitz, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Heitz, of Louisville, was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Gering last week.

Mrs. J. H. Gering and brother, Willie, entertained quite a number of young folks Friday night in honor of Miss Edna Heitz. Music and dancing were the features of the evening. All reported a fine time and left hoping for many more good times.

Goes Into New Store.

Mr. Tony F. Roselle, of near Jeffersontown, who has been in the hat business at 522 West Jefferson Street, Louisville, for many years, has moved to 408 West Jefferson, just three doors below Fourth avenue, on the South side of the street. The move was made necessary on account of the property changing hands for the purpose of erecting a large hotel opposite the courthouse, where Mr. Roselle was located. The new location is a much better one, however, for Mr. Roselle, as he has made modern improvements and will be closer to the shopping district of the city. In addition to this, on account of being a resident of Jeffersontown, he will command a large trade from the people of this community and is located near the interurban station. Mr. Roselle has an attractive ad. in this issue of The Jeffersonian, his home paper, and you are invited to read it and then give him a share of your patronage, mentioning the ad. when buying.

12 PAGES

Of The Jeffersonian This Week
—a Hummer.

Efforts of Newspaper Force Deserving of Praise—Sample Copies at the Fair

With a certain degree of pardonable pride The Jeffersonian presents to the people of Jefferson and adjoining counties this week an issue of twelve pages of all home print, all of the work being done in our own office and by our regular force of printers. No where in the state can this be excelled by a county paper with only five printers. It demonstrates the fact that we are thoroughly prepared to do any and all kinds of printing on short notice. In addition to printing the twelve pages, our force has turned out over $100.00 worth of job printing during the past week. This was made possible only by having first-class workmen and latest improved machinery and type.

Believing that our county fair is deserving of much praise and assistance The Jeffersonian publishes on its first page this week cuts of the officers and grounds of the company, together with a write up of what is to take place this week at the fair and a sketch of the fair company in the past. This we feel sure our readers will appreciate, as well as the fair company.

Hundreds of sample copies of the paper will be distributed at the fair to-day and tomorrow. If you chance to receive one and are already a subscriber, kindly give your copy to rescue, as you may see from looking over the pages of this issue. It used to be that a solicitor for the Jeffersonian would have to run after business men to get them to advertise in this paper, but now many of them are anxious to advertise in its columns without any solicitation at all. The people are just beginning to realize the importance and value of a county newspaper. Our subscribers recognize the fact that to help us they must patronize our advertisers, and we could give many instances where a dollar or five-dollar ad. in The Jeffersonian brought great results.

It may seem, to some, that we are too egotistical in referring to what we are accomplishing, but such is not the case. We are simply showing you what we can do, and will do, if you give us the opportunity. Your co-operation and assistance is solicited.

CLARK.

Aug. 14.—Miss Emma F. Bickers, of Lexington, spent last week with Mrs. E. A. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Page gave a hay ride to the tent meeting now in progress at Long Run on Friday evening. Those who composed the crowd were: Misses Ethel and Irene Witt, Hallie Rath and Christine Taylor, Gladys Page, Mary Armstrong and Misses Struck and Bornhauser, of Louisville; Messrs. Percy Page, Austin Witt, Joe Walters, Sam Armstrong, and Jesse Johnson. A most enjoyable time was spent by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Thompson and daughter, Miss Nora, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, of Simpsonville.

Miss Hallie Taylor visited Mrs. Henry Reuve, of Louisville, recently. Mrs. Bailey and grandson, Frank Bailey, and Miss Frederick, of Louisville, were recent guests of Mrs. Sallie Russell.

Misses Hallie and Ruth Taylor will leave Friday for Lawrenceburg to attend the fair. While gone they will be the guests of Misses Madge Cole and Mayme Crossfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rhea, of Wilsonville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Joe Walters.

Miss Annie Durrett and brother, William, spent several days of last week with Miss Sara Durrett, at Taylorsville, and attended the fair.

Mr. E. A. Taylor and son, Allan, spent Friday at Louisville.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it for forty years, it's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequalled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Heat as a Family Doctor.

A heat, steady warmth applied in the right place is often the greatest help in relieving pain and treating diseases. Not until the electric blanket was successfully operated did the disadvantages of the hot water bottle, such as its weight, uneven heat, and so on become prominent. The electric blanket has passed from the experimental stage to that of a practical necessity. Not only this, but it is made in many different shapes so as to be most convenient for special uses, as for a chest and back pad, cap, collar, sweating jacket, etc. In its soft edgewood cover the warming pad or blanket is the ideal comforter and the foe of pain. Control is arranged so as to give a low, medium or high temperature by the turn of a switch.

HITS MODERN WOMAN

SHE DOESN'T KNOW MEANING OF ROMANTIC LOVE.

So Asserts Alexander Harvey, Who Says He Almost Thinks the Women of Today Have All Gone Crazy.

How will the modern woman move out of her romantic love?

Alexander Harvey, editor and author, answers the question by declaring the woman who walks forward through the love and the heart of man in her progress.

"The modern woman movement is really the new immorality."

"True love does not come between a man and a woman until after marriage and the birth of a child."

"Women never have understood and never will understand the laws of either love or immorality."

"The theory of conscious eugenics, which is one of the by-laws of the modern woman movement, is the supreme suggestion of today."

"Just what do you mean in your characterization of the modern woman movement?" I asked.

"Argand, a poor Swiss, invented a lamp with a wick fitted into a hollow cylinder with a current of air was allowed to pass, thus giving a supply of oxygen to the interior as well as to the exterior of the circular flame."

"At first Argand used the lamp with out any chimney. One day he was busy in his workshop and sitting before the burning lamp. His little brother was amusing himself by blowing a bottomless flask over different articles. Presently he placed it upon the flame of the lamp, which instantly shot up the lower chimney of the flask with increased brilliancy. It did more, for it flashed into Argand's mind the idea of the lamp chimney, by which his invention was perfected."

One day the children of a Dutch spectacle maker were playing with some of their father's glasses before the door of his shop. Setting two of the largest glasses together they peeped through them and were surprised to see the weather clock of the opposite church brought close to their eyes. They called their father to see the strange sight and he saw through the glasses and what he saw suggested to him the possibility of constructing a curious toy.

Galileo, hearing of the toy which made distant things appear close at hand, saw at once what a valuable help it would be in studying the heavens. He set to work, and soon made the telescope.

An accident helped Snodgrass to invent lithography. He was a sort of Jack-of-all-trades—a writer of verses and comedies, an actor, a fiddler, a painter, an engraver and a printer.

While he was etching on copper, he the copperplate refused to let him have any more plates unless he paid cash for them. He then tried to utilize the old plates by rubbing off the etchings with a soft limestone.

At last the copper became useless through many rubbings, and he tried etching on the stone, a plan that did not work very well. One day, while he was polishing off a stone which he intended to give his sister as a present, he wrote out a list of the lines which the landlady was waiting to carry off. Not finding a slip of paper or a drop of ink, Snodgrass wrote the list on the stone with printing ink prepared from wax, soap and lampblack, intending to copy it at his leisure.

A few days later, when he was about to wipe the writing from the stone, he thought he would learn what would be the effect of writing with the prepared ink on the stone, if it should be bitten in with aquafortis. He lay away about the landlady's list, and charged the lines with the ink, took several impressions of the writing and discovered that he had invented the art of lithography.

"What do you think?" she cried.

"Edith Reddin's cousin, that pretty one that was here last summer, has gone off and married a college professor and the family are awfully upset!"

"Gracious!" exclaimed Miss Olcott.

"What was wrong with him?" John inquired.

"Why, a professor, you know?"

"What—what did he do for a living?" asked Kate.

"Do! You can imagine! Why, she could have married—well, a duke, I guess."

"What—what did he do for a living?" asked John.

"Why, well, you know, she's dropped out, just naturally, herself."

"Is she happy?" came from Kate.

"They say so. Oh, I guess she's married happily enough, but not well!"

INVENTION OF CHANCE

BAYONET DEVISED BY TROOPS WHO HAD NO AMMUNITION.

How Argand Invented His Lamp and Galileo the Telescope With Accidental Assistance—Discovery of Lithography.

The bayonet is said to have derived its name from the fact that it was first made at Bayonne and its origin illustrates the proverb, "Necessity is the mother of invention."

A Basque regiment was hard pressed by the enemy on a mountain ridge near Bayonne. One of the soldiers suggested that as their ammunition was exhausted, they should fix their long knives into the barrels of their muskets. The suggestion was acted upon. The first bayonet charge was made, and the victory of the Basques led to the manufacture of the weapon at Bayonne, and its adoption into the armies of Europe.

Not infrequently an invention has been suggested by some trivial event which would have passed unnoticed had not a man with eyes and brains seen it.

Argand, a poor Swiss, invented a lamp with a wick fitted into a hollow cylinder with a current of air was allowed to pass, thus giving a supply of oxygen to the interior as well as to the exterior of the circular flame."

At first Argand used the lamp with out any chimney. One day he was busy in his workshop and sitting before the burning lamp. ## SHE KNEW VIRGINIA'S LAWS

How Maiden Lady of the Old Dominion Saved Her Lawn From the Road Builders.

If women ever come to sit on the bench in old Virginia, there's a maiden lady living on her ancestral acres just across the Potomac from Washington who can qualify for the job.

Recently a realty company bought a tract of land on the other side of her property and platted it into suburban lots. Desiring ready access to the capital, they instituted proceedings to run a public road through the old lady's land; worse, as she learned, the projected road would cut right through the prettiest part of her trim lawn, dear with its memories of her childhood.

She consulted her lawyer, only to be told there was no help for it, since private property may, under the law, be condemned for public use, no matter how unwilling an indignant owner may be.

Far from resigning herself to the ruthless inroad on her cherished lawn, the old lady buried herself in the musty law library handed down from an ancient ancestor, once a prominent judge in the Old Dominion.

When some day later a party of surveyors appeared with stakes and chains to lay out the line of road, they found the owner, spade in hand, just setting out the last of a phalanx of young apple trees squarely in front of the lawn and right in the line of the proposed highway.

"If you set foot inside this orchard," she said defiantly to the astonished surveyors, "I'll have you all thrown out and then arrested for trespass."

With that she called up a half a dozen trusty young countrymen waiting behind the barn for the summons.

"We are surveying the line of the proposed road," said the leader of the surveying party, in whose contract there had been no mention of fighting.

"We are surveying for a public road and can go anywhere."

"Anywhere—except through an orchard!" exclaimed the old lady, pulling a musty volume from under her apron. "It's been the law in Virginia since the days of Patrick Henry that you can't run even a public road through an orchard, so you stay out!"

The old lady had dug up an ancient law unknown to modern attorneys, confounded her opponents and saved her lawn.

Nothing for Nothing.

It was said by all the neighbors of Mr. Quinchley that he had never been known to give away anything in his life. He either sold it, or demanded something in exchange. On one occasion he was making a long journey. The seat directly in front of him was occupied by a man who had been coughing and sneezing at frequent intervals for more than an hour. At last Mr. Quinchley leaned forward and spoke to him.

"That's a pretty bad cold you seem to have," he said.

"Worst one I ever had in my life," wheezed the other.

"Well, I know of a simple and harmless remedy, absolutely sure, that will cure it inside of two days."

"That's a pretty bad cold you seem to have," he said.

"No; you can make it up at home."

"I shall be very grateful if you will tell me what it is."

TESTIMONIAL

This is to certify that I, John B. Ford, was seriously afflicted with stomach and kidney troubles, so much that I had to give up my business, and totally incapacitated from doing any bodily labor, or even to tie my own shoes or walk about the streets without great pain. In fact life had become a burden and undesirable. After exhausting all medical advice within my reach, consisting of a number of practicing Physicians, I applied to CHARLIE WHITE-MOON, and his wonderful medicine, I would have been in my grave today. But thanks be to God, that I heard of this wonderful man. He never laid his hands upon or examined me in any way; I have been taking his remedies, and expect to continue for some time.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. B. Ford, this 1st day of May, 1911. My commission expires January 12, 1914. DAVID MCKINLEY, Notary Public, Jefferson County, Ky.

I am at home to all comers, those who come for legitimate information about the troubles I have been waiting patiently for my return from my great Western trip, returned with more information regarding my great remedies, home to serve you with more ability than ever before, home to prove my great admiration for my friends and neighbors to demonstrate the superiority of God's medicines Roots & Herbs for the healing of human diseases. I am at home on Tuesdays, Thursdays & Saturdays ONLY from 9 to 10 o'clock. If you wish to talk to me, I will be glad to know you & serve you to the best of my ability. If you wish to buy my great medicines, I will sell them to you at a price you can all afford to pay. If you don't want them, don't take them & no harm will be done. ### CHAPTER VII.

When Harry and Lucy strolled into the den, just after Daphne had succeeded in getting into the room with Mrs. Blazes, they were followed by Mr. Medders. Mr. Medders was finding many things to interest him in Harry's home. This was the first time he had ever been where he might saunter from room to room and see all the pictures, books and bric-a-brac—many of which were of a kind that were not popular in his own environment.

"Oh, Harry," Lucy said, "this is just the most delightful visit!"
"I'm doing everything I can to make it pleasant for you, and I hope nothing happens to spoil it," Harry said.
Medders, moving about the den, stopped at the door of the library.

"What is in there, my boy?" he asked. "I haven't been in that room yet."

"There," Harry repeated, nervously. "Oh, that's just a junk room."

"There means a bank room," Lucy corrected him, mischievously.

"Yes," Harry said. "It's a junk bank room."

"Harry," said Mr. Medders, "a junk bank room must be interesting."

And before Harry could stop him he had opened the door and started in, only to step back and say:

"Why, there is some one in here."

"Is there?" Harry asked, affecting surprise, hastily trying to think how big the headlines would be in the papers the next day.

"Why, who can it be?" Lucy asked, Harry feeling that all was lost, still racked his brain for some half-way reasonable explanation of the presence as he thought, of Daphne as was the Count, in his library.

"Why, you see," he began, "they—they are—"

"They?" Medders said. "There is only one man in here."

"Harry was lost for language and breath of thought when the Count stalked majestically into the den. No one else could be seen in the library. Harry looked swiftly through the doorway into every corner of it, then, exclaiming himself, "Where the dickens has she gone?"

She was no longer there; that much was certain. And he turned to see the Count, looking sternly at Medders and Lucy. The Count held a book in his hand, and as his head rose from one of his deep bows he winked earnestly at Harry—a helpful, friendly wink, which was as though it said for him not to worry, that the Count would back him up in any story he told.

"I beg your pardon," Harry rallied. "I had quite forgotten the Count. Miss Medders, Mr. Medders, this is the Count von Pitz."

The Count bowed beautifully. Lucy, courteous, nor father shook the Count's hand—and still everything was not explained.

"And is the gentleman thy instructor, perhaps?" Medders asked, noting with a look the Count held, and the Count, smiling, said that the Count had been in the library.

Harry fairly bubbled with joy at this helpful suggestion, all unconsciously given by Medders.

"Yes," he said, "he is my German tutor."

And art thee a teacher of German? Lucy asked, artlessly, of the Count. Before he could reply, Harry laughed.

"Yes, he's a German teacher of German German. Ha, ha! Good joke, dear teacher!"

He judged the Count in the ribs, to that gentleman's discomfort.

"He has always chocking you he should be learning," the Count gravely informed Lucy.

"Has he learned much?" Lucy wanted to know.

"He has a lot to learn yet," the Count replied, with significance that was lost on Lucy.

"Oh, Harry!" Lucy cried, clapping her hands.

"He has a lot to learn yet," the Count repeated, with significance that was lost on Lucy.

"He has a lot to learn yet," the Count repeated, with significance that was lost on Lucy.

"He has a lot to learn yet," the Count repeated, with significance that was lost on Lucy.

"He has a lot to learn yet," the Count repeated, with significance that was lost on Lucy.

"He has a lot to learn yet," the Count repeated, with significance that was lost on Lucy.

"Sure, I'll win," Harry smiled. "I'll like that!"
"Is that good German?" Lucy asked the Count.
"Very fine," the Count assured her. "He is a quick scholar—he is—what you call—rapid—fast!"
"What does that mean—what he said?" Lucy asked.
"It is not for me, his tutor, to translate for him. Later, he will tell you what it means, I know," the Count replied.
"What was thy last lesson about, Harry?" asked Mr. Medders. "Was it some passage from the German masters, or a chapter of history, perhaps?"
"What was our last lesson about?" Harry asked the Count.
"It was reading writing," the Count said.
"Reading and writing, you mean?" Lucy asked.
"No, no. Reading writing. I am writing about reading and den he is reading der writing."

Harry said that the Count had some plan in mind, but what it might be he could not imagine. However, he willingly let himself be toward it.

"It means that he would write something and then I would try to read it," he said. Mr. Medders nodded gravely, as it appeared to be a very good plan. Lucy, with great interest, said:

"Oh, write something in German now—then I can actually have you write in German, isn't it?—and then let Harry read it!"

So the Count tore the fly leaf from the book in his hand, and solemnly wrote thereon the line:

"Find die dame rat hut!"

He handed the sheet to Harry, who then read it aloud, looking at the Count with a look of intense interest.

"It is a question, you see, and it is to be answered yet."

"Oh, and what does it mean in English?" Lucy asked.

"It means," the Count said, with much significance, and speaking with great deliberation and emphasis, "it means: Did the lady find her hat?"

"Did the lady find her hat?" Lucy repeated after him.

"Not yet!" Harry said, absent-mindedly.

"Ah," the Count said, smiling. "Noch nicht."

"Of course! Of course!" Harry said, as though he perfectly understood his pronunciation. "Noch nicht."

The Count nodded his head with commendation.

"You will say he will be a great German scholar—some day," he asserted. Harry beamed with pride—and amusement. Mr. Medders observed to him:

"Verily, thy tutor must be a learned man."

"He reads nothing but the classics," Harry replied. "You'll always find him in the library. He's dying to get back there now, I expect."

"And no doubt that is a classic he has in his hand even at this moment," Medders said.

"I've no doubt," said Harry, taking the book from the Count's hand and glancing at the title, which was "Three Weeks." "Ah, it is an old treatise on the brevity of time."

He tossed the book into the library, and Harry said:

"Now, I don't want to have to think of any more German today. This is to be a real holiday. Count, and I refuse to study any more."

"I think three art doing a great work," Lucy said to the Count. "To teach Harry German. It is fine that he has such a tutor. I wish I did the happen to be engaged by him!"

"Merely by accident," the Count answered.

"Yes," Harry added, "through a mere accident."

PRIZE WINNERS' PARADE

ONE OF SIX FEATURES

Livestock, Bedecked in Ribbons
March Around Pavilion to Delight of Audience.

What has always been one of the most interesting of all the features in connection with the Kentucky State Fair was the grand parade of prize winning livestock around the ring in the pavilion building. This feature is to be given more attention this year than ever. It will be started at two o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, September 15.

This parade is an imposing one, not alone from the amount of money represented by the premiums, but because of the great amount represented in the value of all the winners combined.

The slow moving, ribbon bedecked cattle seem aware of their commercial importance as they trudge around the ring, while the sleek, carefully groomed horses of high degree prance along as if more than conscious of their grace and breeding.

Cattle dogs, running and barking at the crack of the whips of their masters, pointers and costly sheep and dogs, all combine to make a show equal to any presented during the week. It is a source of pride to those who own the prize winners and a stimulus to others to enter their stock in future competitions.

MYRIAD FEATURES BANISH DOLL CARE

ATTRactions OF PASS WILL CONTRAST WITH MORE SERIOUS EXHIBITS.

MUSIC BY ELEPHANT BAND

Free Attractions More Numerous Than Ever Before Furnished—Racing Events Are Corkers.

Variety not only is the spice of life but experience has proven that it is one of the requisites of success for a big undertaking of a public character such as a state fair. In recognition of this fact the management of the Kentucky State Fair has made plans for the ninth annual exhibition which promise entertainment for all classes and sections. While the more serious form of entertainment comes first, especially in connection with an educational institution such as the Kentucky State Fair is proving to be, the demand always is great for something in a lighter vein which will help drive dull care away and furnish a kind of mental dessert for the feast of good things which the new premium list discloses.

It was the recognition of this element in human nature which caused the side show at the county fair to be born. The idea progressed until the great international exhibitions at Chicago and St. Louis were produced. It was at the former that the Midway became a reality and at the latter that the Pass was introduced. Both struck a popular chord and thus it is that the different state fairs are not considered complete without some such feature.

Both Novel and Clean.

But, together with the adoption of the Pass feature has come the recognition of the further fact that general public will not long approve it unless it is unencumbered by moral surroundings and not prove offensive to the crowds which attend.

The contracts made for the myriad Pass features for the coming fair included stipulations to the effect that the shows must be clean, while retaining the virtue of being novel. This condition will be complied with. Not only will the shows be novel, but they will be new. The old time, much worked over exhibitions will not be continued.

On the Pass, as well as every other feature, the public is expected to be given their money's worth and failure on the part of showmen to do this will meet with instant rebuke.

As an adjunct to the Pass features will be the numerous free acts, all thrilling and exciting. Caterers to popular amusement, these shows will be the great Babcock act in which a bicycle rider dashes down a steep incline, loops the loop and gaps the gap so quickly that the spectators can scarcely follow him with their eyes, is one of the most thrilling ever produced.

Musical on All Hands.

The musical elephants will be a source of continuous delight to the children as well as their elders. The "stunts" which these huge pachyderms perform illustrate what patience and ingenuity will accomplish in the training of wild beasts.

The Whirling Laniette Sisters furnish still another attraction of more than ordinary interest. All lovers of music will enjoy the abundance of the "stunts" which these huge pachyderms perform illustrate what patience and ingenuity will accomplish in the training of wild beasts.

Pat Purses For the Races.

A total of $6,000 in purses will be offered in connection with the racing events which will succeed in interest every year before held. Kentucky is to-day the center of racing as a result of the fight made on the sport in numerous states and the stand early taken by the legislature in passing laws for the control of racing which puts it on a high plane. There will be twelve races in all during the week, seven trotting and five pacing events.

Due to the fact that the head-on collision is scheduled for Saturday afternoon of fair week it will mean that on the first five days of the fair the public will get more than its usual share of races. On Monday there will be two, and on Wednesday and Thursday there will be three races each.

ENTICING STAKES OFFERED FOR FIVE GAITED SADDLERS

COL. M. C. RANKIN READY WITH GENEROUS PURSE IN THIS CONNECTION.

Col. M. C. Rankin, commissioner of agriculture, has come to bat this year with a guarantee of $500 in cash as "The Commissioner of Agriculture State" for five gaited saddle horses. This special stake of $500 is for gaited saddle horses, stallions, mares or geldings, to be shown under saddle in accordance with the rules of the Kentucky State Fair governing this class. This stake will be divided as follows:

Purity per cent to the first horse, 25 per cent to the second, 15 per cent to the third, 10 per cent to the fourth and 10 per cent to the fifth.

A condition is that all entries be registered in the American Saddle Horse Register. The name of the horse must be filed with the secretary of the Kentucky State Fair by September 1.

RURAL SCHOOLS RECOGNIZED

KENTUCKY STATE FAIR GOES THE LIMIT IN ENCOURAGING EXHIBITORS.

The annual premium list for the Kentucky State Fair, which is just out of the hands of the printer, teems with good things in the way of awards, all of a character to attract exhibitors. Thousands of copies are being mailed to prospective exhibitors and the demand for them is unprecedented. A list of the various prizes, classes and premium list, which is attractively gotten up both from a standpoint of mechanical work and of arrangement, furnishes pleasing surprises.

Among the new departments will be the educational, with prizes for the children in connection with the rural schools. These prizes will be divided among the classes in sewing, cooking, map drawing, model houses, writing, spelling, etc. The premium list was placed in competent hands by Prof. Elsworth Kopenstein, at the head of this department, he having designated Mr. McHenry Rhodes, of Owensboro, and Prof. T. J. Conner, of Richmond, for that purpose. Such a department is certain to appeal to the enthusiasm of both teachers and pupils, and spirited contests are expected.

This recognition of the rural schools is in line with the policy of the management to recognize the sections of the state from which a big part of the support for the Kentucky State Fair is expected.

PERRY'S VICTORY ON ERIE TO BE DISPLAYED IN FIRE

From the amusement standpoint alone, as divorced from the more serious or educational end, the Kentucky State Fair of 1911 will make a big hit. Amusements of a character which will not give offense, but which still are up to the minute, have been contracted for, and it will be to laugh every minute while the visitors are in the proper section. The marshalling into a band of several big, clumsy elephants is an entirely new and diverting feature from a pleasure standpoint.

The Whirling Laniette Sisters will make the average person dizzy in a very few minutes and their gratings are a wonder.

The combination feature known as the "Loop the Loop" at the "Cap the Cap," one of the most thrilling features ever attempted anywhere, is certain to draw thousands daily to the scene of the dare-devil ride. The head-on collision between two monster engines each weighing 40 tons, will provide sensations enough to last a week. The two engines are started forward on one on a track and permitted to crash in front of the grand stand.

Kentucky's Commissioners.

The spectacular displays will draw both old and young as if by magic, and the features arranged for this year will be certain to please. In this instance the state fair management has not been sparing of money as it decided that it were better to have none unless it be the best.

Kentuckians should be especially interested in the graphically spectacular display of the Victory on Lake Erie, as provided by the state fair management commissioners from this state to the centennial celebration in 1912.

Other beautiful and impressive fire shows in fire works, to be given nightly by the Pro-Spectacular Company of Rochester, N. Y., with which concern the contract has been made.

All-Wool Commercial Fit

vs. Shoddy

WHY do people continue to ask the question, 'does a business education pay,' when there's but one answer? Of course it pays. As I see it, there is only one thing that causes doubt, and that is the cut-rate school, or in other words, the $2.98 kind. A 'commercial fit' in a first-class school paves the way to a good salary, and aids in gaining confidence and respect. If I were to point out the road to success, I would direct to the South-East Corner of 6th & Main Sts."

The Spencerian Commercial School

Thus reads another letter from an enthusiastic graduate of this institution—Horace C. Hays, Secretary and Treasurer, of P.C. Kennet & Son.

We have such letters as this by the hundreds. It is the joy of my life to read them. They prove that my years of effort to attain and maintain an institution with thorough methods, taught by efficient instructors, that shall turn out successes, has itself been crowned with success.

Young man, young woman! don't let time overtake you without any specialized means of support. You can never tell when such a business training as I can give will be useful—yes, even vital.

Prepare now! At once! Take up Stenography—Book-keeping—Accounting—the entering wedges to greater trusts and greater responsibilities.

Fill out and send coupon, or better still, call and see us personally.

THIS STAR ON THE HEEL OF A SHOE

Stands For Something

This Star on the heel of a Shoe guarantees—
First—That it is a genuine "Star Brand" Shoe, and Second—It guarantees that it is an honest shoe—made of solid leather. No substitutes for leather are ever used in "Star Brand" Shoes.

Uncle Sam thinks so much of "Star Brand" Shoes that he has bought nearly Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars' worth this year. He bought them for his soldiers and sailors because he knows they are better than other shoes.

There are more "Star Brand" Shoes worn than any other kind. Over Twelve Million feet were fitted with these famous shoes last year, and every heel had this well known star on it.

We are showing a splendid stock of "Star Brand" Shoes in all styles and leathers in both our stores. Come and see them before you buy your fall and winter shoes. Try them on, compare them with other shoes you have worn, and you'll agree with us that—

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better."

Be sure this Star is on every heel.

Neat and Dressy

You'll find all "Patriot" shoes that way. They are not only made for dress wear, but we have many styles suitable for every day.

The "Patriot" is the shoe without the "hurt," and we can conscientiously say that you'll find them unequalled for comfort from the moment they're first put on till worn out. You don't have to break them in like other shoes, because every pair is built specially to conform to the foot. Modern methods of shoemaking make it possible to produce such shoes. Were you to have shoes like the "Patriot" made by hand, you would have to pay twice as much for them.

We sell the "Patriot" at $4.00 and it's well worth the price. We have a style for you.
Come in and look them over. We'll be glad to show you even if you don't buy.

Women's Stylish Footwear

The up-to-date woman demands shoes that have beauty, style and comfort. Nothing less will satisfy her. The makers of the "Society" Shoe, knowing these facts well, long ago determined to produce just such shoes. The "Society" is the result of those years of determined effort, and all who see our "Society" line will agree that the manufacturers have indeed achieved a triumph in the making of dressy shoes for women.

The illustration shows our plain toe, button style.

We have many other styles equally as attractive as this one. Come in and look them over.

"SOCIETY," $3.50.

GOOD SHOES AT MEDIUM PRICES

Many men want strong, serviceable shoes, but can not afford to pay more than $2.50 to $3.00. In our "Pilgrim," "Pluck" and "Elzy R." lines we have shoes that can not be equalled anywhere at the price.

You'll find shoes in each line that possess the same distinctive qualities found in shoes of higher price.
The man who pays $2.50 to $3.00 for a pair of shoes is not so particular about the finish, and that is one reason why we can sell them at these prices. What he wants is a quality shoe, and when we say you will get such a shoe, we know of what we speak. We would not for a moment sell you any shoe in these lines were we not sure that they were of the standard of quality always maintained.

Remember, we have styles to suit your desires,
so bring your feet to us.

"Pilgrim," $3.50; "Pluck," $3.00;
"Elzy R.," $2.50.

TESS AND TED SCHOOL SHOES

You will soon be getting your children ready for school and naturally you want them to be well-shod, and it possible more economically shod than last year. The average school child requires four to six pairs of shoes each season, and every parent groans over this expense.

"Tess and Ted" School Shoes give you better values than you have ever known before. They not only look better and fit better than other shoes, but wear longer than ordinary school shoes.
Our experience has shown that four pairs of "Tess and Ted" school shoes will out wear five pairs of the ordinary kind.

We know you will be pleased with them because they will stand all the shoe and rough usage required of them. Made in styles to suit every taste. Patent Leather, Vici, Gun Metal, in either Button or Lace.

"TESS AND TED" BOYS', $2.50.
"TESS AND TED" YOUTHS', $2.25.
"TESS AND TED" MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S, $2.00 to $2.50.
"TESS AND TED" LITTLE WOMEN'S, $2.50 to $3.00.

THREE WINNERS FOR THE LADIES

Many women require a medium priced shoe and we have them in all styles and leathers.

In our "Mayflower," "Greatest" and "Little Women's" Tess and Ted we have some numbers that will appeal to you instantly. Every pair is fashioned over lasts of graceful lines that give comfort and ease with every step. It's a pleasure to wear shoes that are comfortable, and they do not cost any more than shoes that hurt the feet. In all of these lines we have shoes made in all the popular leathers—either Button or Lace.

"Mayflower" . . . $2.50 to $3.00
"Greatest" . . . $2.00 to $2.50
"Tess and Ted" . . . $2.50 to $3.00

"OUR FAMILY" SHOES FOR ALL THE FAMILY

The real reason is their fast growing popularity and their genuine goodness. Low price figures do not mean, but quality is what is sought.

It's not so much what the shoe costs, but the sterling quality contained therein that makes it a bargain at the price.

Don't misconstrue the word bargain, because we mean this shoe is so much better in quality than other makes at the price it's a bargain.

You'll find the "Our Family" a valuable addition; every pair is made of solid leather. The uppers are of specially tanned chrome calf leather—the kind that Uncle Sam demands for his soldiers' shoes.

This shoe is not a shoe built for style, but mostly for service. But it's a mighty good looking shoe for all that.

Come in. We will be glad to show you this splendid line for the entire family.

Men's "Our Family," $2.50 to $3.00; Women's "Our Family," $2.00.

A Very Popular Shoe

It's nothing out of the ordinary to have entire families come into our store to be fitted with "Our Family" shoes.

For the Man Who Works

Every man who does manual labor must have shoes suited to his work.

A shoe built for service is the kind he requires and expects.
"STRONGER-THAN-THE-LAW" will fill the bill for the man who works hard. This shoe is built so strong and durable that you'll say after wearing a pair, "They are stronger than the law."

But how can they be "stronger than the law"? Because they are manufactured of the best materials. Each shoe is solid leather throughout. Two full soles on every pair. The uppers are of chrome tanned leather specially treated with oil to make the leather as nearly waterproof as leather can be made.

It's an everyday occurrence to have men come into our store and demand another pair like the last. That speaks well for the shoe. Try a pair for your work. We have them in high cuts and ordinary height.

"Stronger-Than-The-Law" High Top, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00.
"Stronger-Than-The-Law" Regular Top, $3.50 to $4.00.

There are other good shoes, of course, but "Star Brand" Shoes Are Better
